I was over at Mrs. King yesterday (the 9) looking over their bed. I stayed about 20 minutes when the little girl opened the door I noticed Mrs.
King was crying. I asked her what seemed to be the matter. She replied she was troubled to death. She said she cared not take care of the children this winter, no body to help her. She said she was in trouble since Mr. King died & that she did not expect to live many days or even hours longer. Then bursted out crying - I noticed her frequently when passing & always noticed she was in distress. She seemed to be kind to her children - The children were well behaved & did not seem to give their mother much trouble.

I noticed Mrs Kees house being on fire this morning (the 10) I first saw the smoke and discovered something was wrong. I ran along with my son (George) & we got there first. When I got to the house I pushed the door open & saw one child lying on the floor on its back. I crawled in on my hands and knees & pulled it out. The smoke prevented my seeing the others. I noticed a pool of blood near where the child lay on the floor. I hollered fire as loud as I could. Two colored men (Dassal & his son) came up and also Mr DeCarum. I could not see any thing inside with the smoke. I visited Mr Kees' Salubrious Lash (the 7) & she appeared shut full of good spirit, and it coincides with my knowledge that she had plenty provisions. - The fire spread as far as I could see in the end different from where the chimney stood. -
